

Educating to Protect Intellectual Property Toolkit

Teaching about intellectual property can be tricky, especially for non-lawyers. To ensure that teachers are comfortable with this important subject matter, they need access to high quality curriculum, strategies, and resources. This toolkit provides the information and tools necessary to integrate intellectual property into classroom instruction.

The toolkit can be downloaded in its entirety as a single .pdf or by section as described below. If you have questions about this toolkit or Street Law, Inc.'s Educating to Protect Intellectual Property initiative, please contact Deborah Foster.

Complete ePIP Toolkit (Download)

Toolkit by section

Introductory Materials

Details about Street Law, Inc.'s ePIP initiative including FAQs and best practices in law-related education

ePIP Toolkit: Introductory Section

Section 1

A good starting point for teachers wishing to integrate IP into their curricula including connections to national standards and a sample lesson

ePIP Toolkit: Section 1

Section 2

Web resources and instructions for developing enrichment projects to help students utilize the knowledge and skills they have acquired through the intellectual property lessons

ePIP Toolkit: Section 2

Section 3

Resources for teachers who have taught about intellectual property and are interested in providing professional development to other teachers

ePIP Toolkit: Section 3

Section 4

Contains teaching strategies, sample professional development agenda and evaluation, and guidelines for using community resource people to teach about intellectual property

ePIP Toolkit: Section 4